Award Category (choose one):

Outstanding New Volunteer

Criteria: Volunteer has served with the Orange County Affiliate for less than 2 years and made a positive impact on the organization and cause. Current Komen Board members and staff are not eligible.

Volunteer of the Year

Criteria: Volunteer has served with the Orange County Affiliate for a minimum of 5 years, has embraced the Core Values of Komen and has been a positive agent of change. Current Komen Board members and staff are not eligible.

Partner for the Cure

Criteria: A member of the community that combines their work and philanthropic volunteering to benefit the Affiliate in an extraordinary way. Volunteer must have given 3 or more years of service. Current Komen Board members and staff are not eligible.

Outstanding Youth Volunteer

Criteria: A volunteer 21 years of age or younger who has made a positive impact on the Orange County Affiliate.

Outstanding Volunteer Group

Criteria: A committee or group comprising four or more individuals that have worked together to benefit the Affiliate. Through their team effort positive outcomes have been achieved for the Affiliate. Komen OC Affiliate Committees are not eligible.

Komen Warrior Award

Criteria: Volunteer has served the organization for 10 or more years and has gone above and beyond the call of duty. The volunteer consistently strives to further the position of the Affiliate within the community while keeping the Promise at heart. This volunteer is a role model and source of inspiration for other volunteers and all connected with the organization. Current Komen staff not eligible.

Heavy Lifter/Worker Bee Award

Criteria: Volunteer who assisted with activities that were physical in nature or who undertook a project that required vast time and energy within the past year. This is a very "hands-on" volunteer who supports the organization behind-the-scenes and who's support is highly valued by Komen staff.

Shining Star Award

Criteria: Volunteer who has served the organization for 1 year or more and shines brightly behind the scenes. A quiet achiever that has made a significant contribution in time and effort, or who has brought a special skill or resource to the organization. Board members and current staff members are not eligible.

Please provide the following information to support your nomination (attach a separate sheet):

1. Describe the nominee's volunteer efforts during his/her services to Susan G. Komen; also any position(s) held, committees, general volunteering. Please indicate the impact and need of the volunteer work.
2. How has the nominee demonstrated a passion for volunteering and advanced the mission of Susan G. Komen OC including the effect on the community at large or individuals served by the Affiliate?

Nominations will be reviewed by the Volunteer Awards Nomination Review Panel. The call for nominations will be distributed through the Board of Directors, Volunteer e-blasts, Komen e-newsletter, social media and our website.
